

Design and determination of feasibility of biogas digester integration as a waste management tool

This objective of this project was to survey, identify, model and undertake technical and economic feasibility of a Biogas Digester at the Graaff – Reinet Abattoir to produce electricity and algal pond fertilizers (Camdeboo Local Municipality).