

Development of a broad based black economic empowerment strategy with a focus on sustainable practices for Orange River Wine Cellars (ORWC)

ORWC is the largest wine cellar in the Southern Hemisphere. The purpose of this project was to develop an integrated BEE and sustainable agricultural practices strategy that could lead to meaningful organizational and divisional BEE within the constraints under which the ORWC operates while also contributing to sectoral targets (the SASP)