

Financial viability assessment study for De Heuwel estate CC

OABS Development (Pty) Ltd was commissioned by Casidra (Unit for Technical Assistance) to conduct a viability assessment to assess whether the vegetable enterprise would be the most feasible and economically viable option for the farm, taking into account the farm size and the available resources such as soil and water.