

Hopetown whole farm planning and the associated multiplier effects

Estimate the micro- and macro-economic viability of the proposed 800 hectare development

- Land reform project
- Dynamic linear farm models were used to determine optimal development time and farm structure
- Economic multipliers were used to show the broader economic impact on the Northern Cape Province
- Institutional analysis to determine optimal organisation
- Implementation plan