

Marchand economic development opportunity, related to compost production as part of a BEE initiative

Feasibility study and drafting of a business plan for the proposed compost production unit at Marchand – Emphasis being placed on contributing to the sustainability of agriculture in terms of utilising organic compost as an alternative to chemical fertilizers.