

The feasibility of the small-scale milling sector in South Africa

The objective of the project was to investigate the feasibility of small scale maize milling, with the intention to develop a sustainable and commercially viable small scale maize milling programme in South Africa. The programme will aim to facilitate the entrants of new investors in the sector in order to improve healthy competition, to expand the sector with alternative market options for value addition of agricultural commodities and to create employment opportunities.