

Uzbekistan Water Efficiency and Agriculture Project

Water requirements in Central Asia are large and growing, and the countries in the region face water scarcity challenges. Uzbekistan is among the largest water consumers in the region. The Project focussed on introducing water efficient irrigation practices in cotton and fruits and vegetables sectors in the country.