

Bamboo value chain opportunities within the South African market

The primary objective of this project was to understand exactly what the bamboo value chain opportunities are and access to the various markets for these products to inform investment decisions on the location/s of bamboo plantations and processing facilities. The value chain options needed to be matched with the acceptable growing climate/conditions.